NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

On October 12, 2017, the conditions of supervision were reviewed with Mr. Jones. He signed his judgment acknowledging an understanding of his conditions of supervised release.

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Special Condition #13: You must not have direct contact with any child you know or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, including your own children, without the permission of the probation officer. If you do have any direct contact with any child you know or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, including your own children, without the permission of the probation officer, you must report this contact to the probation officer within 24 hours. Direct contact includes written communication, in-person communication, or physical contact. Direct contact does not include incidental contact during ordinary daily activities in public places. Supporting Evidence: Mr. Jones is alleged to have violated the conditions of his supervised release, specifically special condition number 13, by having unapproved contact with a minor on or about April 5, 2023. On or about April 5, 2023, Mr. Jones had virtual communication with his fiancée's son through video messaging. This officer became aware of the contact through his computer monitoring. When confronted, Mr. Jones did not deny the contact and advised the contact was not intentional, claiming his fiancée had accidentally turned the camera toward her son and when that occurred he ended the call immediately. Mr. Jones was admonished for failing to report the minor contact. He and his fiancée were also warned about further consequences of her facilitating minor contact without this officer's approval.

Prob12A

Re: Jones, Morgan DouglasJune 1, 2023*Page 2*U.S. Probation Officer Action:

In addition to his judgment prohibiting Mr. Jones from having any unapproved contact with minors, he is also prohibited from having contact with his fiancé's minors through the Department of Child, Youth and Family Services, unless prior approval is obtained. For the alleged contact, neither agency had approved the contact. Mr. Jones was admonished and warned of the consequences of any future contact. Mr. Jones was further admonished for failing to report the contact within 24 hours. He was reminded of his conditions of supervision. Based on this officer's admonishment, this officer feels Mr. Jones has been thoroughly warned and understands future contact will require Court intervention. Thus, this officer is respectfully requesting no action be taken at this time.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
